PREFACE.

This Index contains the names of some 50,000 persons who have been advertised for in The London Gazette, The Times, and numerous other London and Country newspapers, as Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, Legatees, or in some other capacity, to prove their claims to Money and Property of incalculable value.

Since the last Edition of this work was issued the compiler has gone carefully through the Advertisements and Information to which the names relate, and has taken out of the Index a large number of notices apparently only of value to Solicitors and Genealogists. In lieu of the names omitted, there have been added about 10,000 names of persons advertised for since 1871, the date of the Third Edition.

To shew the value of such an Index as this, it is only necessary to mention one or two facts. From a Parliamentary Return recently issued, it appears that the funds in the Court of Chancery amounted in 1876 to the prodigious sum of upwards of £70,000,000. A large proportion of these funds consists of unclaimed money. In 1865 an Act was passed giving power to apply £1,000,000 from the surplus interest of these very funds towards the building of the new Law Courts. Very large sums of money in the shape of Unclaimed Dividends of the Bank of England and Army and Navy Prize Money, also await claimants. That these funds can be easily recovered by the parties entitled thereto, on properly authenticated proofs of identity being adduced, is evidenced by the following extract from a Report of the Commissioners on Chancery Funds. Speaking of the publication in 1855 of a List of Causes wherein funds had been standing unclaimed for fifteen years and upwards, the Commissioners said:—"Many persons came forward and preferred their claims, and about one-half of the Stock supposed to be unclaimed was transferred out of Court to successful claimants." It also appears from a Parliamentary Return relating to Army Prize Money that successful claims to the amount of £1,122,040 have been paid.

The Compiler believes that this Index will be found of great assistance to those in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money, or to what has become of some relative long lost sight of. In cases where—even after an Advertisement is obtained—it is found that the property has been already recovered, the information is still of value, inasmuch as anxiety is set at rest, and a great deal of time and money saved that would otherwise be spent in useless searches. Moreover, it has sometimes happened that funds have been paid over to the wrong person, but which have been recouped on the rightful claimant appearing.

Detailed information concerning "Unclaimed Money" and "Persons Advertised for," will be found in a little work recently issued by the Compiler of this Index, Price One Shilling. It has been very favourably reviewed by the Press, as appears by the following:—

Mr. Preston's little book on the subject of missing Heirs at Law, Whimsical Wills, &c., contains many interesting anecdotes. . . .—Saturday Review.

Deserves notice for its originality as the first book of the kind, its historical interest and curious facts, as well as for its practical utility. . . . In no other country could there be so much Unclaimed Money, or so many persons ignorant of their claims or how to establish them. . . .—Academy.

This work is what it professes to be . . . . while the information furnished is very valuable. To our readers the three chapters on Army Prize Money, Naval Prize Money, and Indian Loot, will be found especially interesting. . . .—Naval and Military Gazette.

August, 1878. E. P.

"UNCLAIMED MONEY,

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, & PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR.

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN).

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

A most interesting Shilling's-worth. . . . .—Graphic.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand.—Broad Arrow.

This is indeed a "Handy Book" specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints. . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book.—People's Journal.

Even those who have no "expectations" may read it with interest. . . .—City Press.

Will prove an invaluable source of amusement to those who feel an interest in locked-up sums of money. . . . .—Public Opinion.

A very instructive and amusing book. . . .—Metropolitan.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work. . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . —Freemason.

Will also serve as a guide to the whereabouts of missing relatives. . . The work is well compiled and is sufficiently exhaustive. . .—European Mail.

This book is, apart from the special information it contains, really interesting to the general reader. . . .—South London Press.

Contains so much readable matter and such an amount of anecdote that it may fairly lay claim to a very generous reception from lovers of light reading. . . .—Brighton Herald.

Contains a great amount of miscellaneous information. . . and is interesting reading . . .—Scotsman.

An admirable work, replete with practical information and many amusing anecdotes. . . .—Guernsey Star.

Full of quaint details and infinitely more amusing than nine-tenths of the novels that inundate our bookshelves. . . .—Whitehall Review.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs-at-Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled. . . . A cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

This book may be classed among the light literature of legal writings. It is useful as well as interesting. . . .—Aberdeen Journal.

Contains a variety of information interesting and instructive to the general public. . . .—Northampton Herald.

So attractively compiled that we have little fear it will attain a wide circulation. It is certain to prove of immense utility. . . .—Londonderry Herald.

UNCLAIMED MONEY,

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, & PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the Author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand. . . .—Broad Arrow.

This is, indeed, a "Handy Book," specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book. . . .—People's Journal.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . —Freemason.

The book is, apart from the special information it contains, really interesting to the general reader. . . .—South London Press.

"Unclaimed Money," is the attractive title of some notes on Heirs at Law and Next of Kin who have been advertised for or otherwise sought without avail . . . Mr. Preston has brought together a considerable amount of curious information . . —Rock.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled . . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

Even to those who have no "great expectations" it will be found to possess fruitful sources of interest.—Chelsea News.

So attractively compiled that we have little fear it will attain a wide circulation. It is certain to prove of immense utility.—Londonderry Herald.

This book may be classed among the light literature of legal writings. It is useful as well as interesting.—Aberdeen Journal.

The information it contains and the reliable statistics it gives are sufficient to enable it to assert and to occupy a place in every household.—Kelso Chronicle.

Replete with interesting and curious matter.—Foreign Times.

It gives full particulars respecting sums of money bequeathed but not claimed, and may, perhaps, serve to restore some relatives and friends to each other and to their rights.—Darlington and Stockton Times.

It is a curious and interesting production.—Halifax Courier.

A most amusing little book. There is richness (without punning) about the details that is truly enjoyable.—Chatham and Rochester News.

Contains a great deal of interesting matter on Unclaimed Money, Eccentric Wills, and such kindred topics.—Bury and Norwich Post.

Mr. Preston has made a specialty of the subject treated in this book, and any one interested in searches of the kind should by all means obtain a copy of this work, as it gives them exactly what they want.—Peterborough Advertiser.

Contains a large amount of curious information.—Exeter Times.

Affords a good deal of useful information for those seeking official notifications to Next of Kin.—Jersey Times.

Those who devote a few spare minutes to its pages will find the work really interesting and valuable. We cannot see how a work of this description could be made more entertaining and pleasant to read.—Oldham Chronicle.

[Note:—This person died intestate, and her effects went to the Crown, who would recoup the same on Next of Kin substantiating their claims.]

UNCLAIMED MONEY,

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, & PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR,

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the Author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand. . . .—Broad Arrow.

This is, indeed, a "Handy Book," specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book. . . .—People's Journal.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . .—Freemason.

The book is, apart from the special information it contains, really interesting to the general reader. . . .—South London Press.

The chapter on "Curiosities of Next of Kin" is remarkable and attractive.—Colliery Guardian.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled . . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

Even to those who have no "great expectations" it will be found to possess fruitful sources of interest.—Chelsea News.

Contains reliable information to persons who may be personally concerned in the subject upon which it treats, and affords a good deal of amusement in the shape of anecdotes.—Bucks Herald.

So attractively compiled that we have little fear it will attain a wide circulation. It is certain to prove of immense utility.—Londonderry Herald.

This book may be classed among the light literature of legal writings. It is useful as well as interesting.—Aberdeen Journal.

The information it contains and the reliable statistics it gives are sufficient to enable it to assert and to occupy a place in every household. . . . . Works regarding money are generally popular, and we have no doubt Mr. Preston's able work will be very widely read.—Kelso Chronicle.

Replete with interesting and curious matter.—Foreign Times.

It gives full particulars respecting sums of money bequeathed but not claimed, and may, perhaps, serve to restore some relatives and friends to each other and to their rights.—Darlington and Stockton Times.

It is a curious and interesting production.—Halifax Courier.

It will be found very attractive to those who are on the look out for a stroke of good fortune.—Newark Advertiser.

Mr. Preston has made a specialty of the subject treated in this book, and any one interested in searches of the kind should by all means obtain a copy of this work, as it gives them exactly what they want.—Peterborough Advertiser.

Contains a large amount of curious information.—Exeter Times.

Affords a good deal of useful information for those seeking official notifications to Next of Kin.—Jersey Times.

Those who devote a few spare minutes to its pages will find the work really interesting and valuable. We cannot see how a work of this description could be made more entertaining and pleasant to read.—Oldham Chronicle.

UNCLAIMED MONEY,

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, & PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR,

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

Mr. Preston's little book on the subject of missing Heirs at Law, Whimsical Wills, &c., contains many interesting anecdotes. . .—Saturday Review.

Deserves notice for its originality as the first book of the kind, its historical interest and curious facts, as well as for its practical utility. . . . In no other country could there be so much Unclaimed Money, or so many persons ignorant of their claims or how to establish them. . . . In one instance the Heirs or Next of Kin of a person who emigrated to America in 1683 were lately advertised for in connection with unclaimed property to the extent of $2,000,000. . .—Academy.

This work is what it professes to be. . . . while the information furnished is very valuable. To our readers the three chapters on Army Prize Money, Naval Prize Money, and Indian Loot, will be found especially interesting. . . Naval and Military Gazette.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the Author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand. . . .—Broad Arrow.

This is indeed a "Handy Book," specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book. . . .—People's Journal.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled . . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . —Freemason.

So attractively compiled that we have little fear it will attain a wide circulation. It is certain to prove of immense utility.—Londonderry Herald.

This book may be classed among the light literature of legal writings. It is useful as well as interesting.—Aberdeen Journal.

The information it contains and the reliable statistics it gives are sufficient to enable it to assert and to occupy a place in every household. . . . . Works regarding money are generally popular, and we have no doubt Mr. Preston's able work will be very widely read.—Kelso Chronicle.

Replete with interesting and curious matter.—Foreign Times.

It is in every way desirable that Unclaimed Money should find its way to the lawful Heirs. This Handy Book will be found very useful by persons in search of a clue to Missing Relatives.—Somerset County Herald.

For the general reader the chapters on Prize Money, Unclaimed Dividends, Misers, Unexpected Assets, Restitution, and Whimsical Wills, probably carrying off the palm.—Burton Chronicle.

Mr. Preston has made a specialty of the subject treated in this book, and any one interested in searches of the kind should by all means obtain a copy of this work, as it gives them exactly what they want.—Peterborough Advertiser.

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

A most interesting shilling's-worth . . . —Graphic.

Even those who have no "expectations" may read it with interest—City Press.

Will prove an invaluable source of amusement to those who feel an interest in locked-up sums of money . . . .—Public Opinion.

A very instructive and amusing book . . . .—Metropolitan.

Will also serve as a guide to the whereabouts of missing relatives . . . . The work is well compiled, and is sufficiently exhaustive . . .—European Mail.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the Author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand. . . .—Broad Arrow.

This is indeed a "Handy Book," specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book. . . .—People's Journal.

Contains a great amount of miscellaneous information, and is interesting reading . . . .—Scotsman.

An admirable work, replete with practical information and many amusing anecdotes . . . .—Guernsey Star.

Full of quaint details, and infinitely more amusing than nine-tenths of the novels that inundate our bookshelves . . . .—Whitehall Review.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . —Freemason.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled . . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

Of course every family at some time or other has been entitled to property, and all such would read with more or less interest the curious information contained in this small volume . . . .—Literary World.

THIRD THOUSAND.

Cloth, 8vo., PRICE ONE SHILLING, Post Free 15 Stamps. All Booksellers.

UNCLAIMED MONEY,

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, & PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR,

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

A most interesting shilling's-worth . . . —Graphic.

Even those who have no "expectations" may read it with interest—City Press.

Will prove an invaluable source of amusement to those who feel an interest in locked-up sums of money . . . .—Public Opinion.

A very instructive and amusing book . . . .—Metropolitan.

Will also serve as a guide to the whereabouts of missing relatives . . . . The work is well compiled, and is sufficiently exhaustive . . .—European Mail.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the Author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand. . . .—Broad Arrow.

This is indeed a "Handy Book," specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book. . . .—People's Journal.

Contains a great amount of miscellaneous information, and is interesting reading . . . .—Scotsman.

An admirable work, replete with practical information and many amusing anecdotes . . . .—Guernsey Star.

Full of quaint details, and infinitely more amusing than nine-tenths of the novels that inundate our bookshelves . . . .—Whitehall Review.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . —Freemason.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled . . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

Of course every family at some time or other has been entitled to property, and all such would read with more or less interest the curious information contained in this small volume . . . .—Literary World.

For Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons advertised for, the volume is simply invaluable. We cannot find a dry chapter in the book. . .—Man of Ross.

This work has deservedly attracted much attention in England, because it presents, for the first time in book form, a good deal of matter that is curious and interesting. "Unclaimed Money" cannot fail to be of interest to every one, as it includes within its neatly printed pages an immense amount of entertaining information, some of which has special reference to Americans.—Philadelphia Weekly Item.

UNCLAIMED MONEY,

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, & PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR,

By EDWARD PRESTON

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

A very useful Handy Book. . . . Most persons will agree with the Author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand. . . .—Broad Arrow.

This is indeed a "Handy Book," specially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good. . . .—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book. . . .—People's Journal.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . It is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree. . . .—Freemason.

The book is, apart from the special information it contains, really interesting to the general reader. . . .—South London Press.

The chapter on "Curiosities of Next of Kin" is remarkable and attractive.—Colliery Guardian.

A neatly got up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled . . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . .—Hereford Journal.

Even to those who have no "great expectations" it will be found to possess fruitful sources of interest.—Chelsea News.

Contains reliable information to persons who may be personally concerned in the subject upon which it treats, and affords a good deal of amusement in the shape of anecdotes.—Bucks Herald.

So attractively compiled that we have little fear it will attain a wide circulation. It is certain to prove of immense utility.—Londonderry Herald.

This book may be classed among the light literature of legal writings. It is useful as well as interesting.—Aberdeen Journal.

The information it contains and the reliable statistics it gives are sufficient to enable it to assert and to occupy a place in every household. . . . . Works regarding money are generally popular, and we have no doubt Mr. Preston's able work will be very widely read.—Kelso Chronicle.

Replete with interesting and curious matter.—Foreign Times.

It gives full particulars respecting sums of money bequeathed but not claimed, and may, perhaps, serve to restore some relatives and friends to each other and to their rights.—Darlington and Stockton Times.

It is a curious and interesting production.—Halifax Courier.

It will be found very attractive to those who are on the look out for a stroke of good fortune.—Newark Advertiser.

Mr. Preston has made a specialty of the subject treated in this book, and any one interested in searches of the kind should by all means obtain a copy of this work, as it gives them exactly what they want.—Peterborough Advertiser.

Contains a large amount of curious information.—Exeter Times.

Affords a good deal of useful information for those seeking official notifications to Next of Kin.—Jersey Times.

Those who devote a few spare minutes to its pages will find the work really interesting and valuable. We cannot see how a work of this description could be made more entertaining and pleasant to read.—Oldham Chronicle.

NOTE.—Advertisements for Next of Kin and Missing Relatives are sometimes of a very romantic kind. The following are inserted in order to shew how unexpectedly Fortunes accrue:—

45,028.—If BENJAMIN or ANDREW BINKIN, who left London for the East Indies in 1839, and who saved the life of a lady passenger from being drowned, will apply to ——, he will hear of something to his advantage. If dead, his children will be entitled.

45,043.—If JOSEPH PEARCE, carpenter, formerly of Stroud, and who was at the rebuilding of Daylesford Church in 1860, will apply to ——, he will hear of a large property in land and cash left him by a lady whose life he saved at the risk of his own in 1846.

N.B.—Both these Advertisements appeared in 1873.

NOTE.—The following (extracted from the LONDON GAZETTE*) are instances of "windfalls" for the Next of Kin of deceased Soldiers. Too much publicity cannot be given to the fact that these sums are easily recoverable on proper proofs of identity being adduced. The* LONDON GAZETTE is a most unlikely medium for conveying information to the persons really interested, namely, Soldiers' Widows and Children.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

SMITH'S POOR KIN CASE.

THE following particulars concerning this remarkable case will doubtless be read with interest by the numerous family of Smiths:

In 1627 Alderman Henry Smith bequeathed £1,000, to be invested in land of the value of £60 a year, to be distributed "for the relief and ransom of poor captives taken by the Turkish pirates." He also gave £1,000 to be laid out in land of the same value "for the use and relief of the poorest of his kindred—such as were unable to work for their living, namely—sick, aged, and impotent persons, and such as could not maintain their own charge."

In consequence of these bequests about eighty acres of land in Kensington and Chelsea were purchased. In 1772 an Act of Parliament was passed enabling the Trustees of the Charity to grant building leases, and to pay the income from certain South Sea Annuities, being the accumulations of the moiety given for the benefit of the captives, after satisfying the £60 a year, if required, to and among the poor kindred of the testator. The land thus purchased had enormously increased in value, £11,000 being the income in 1877, with a prospect of its reaching £50,000 a year on certain leases falling in. An Information was filed against the Trustees to have a Scheme settled by the Court for the administration of the Charity, and the question arose whether any and what portion of the income of the Charity could be appropriated to the benefit of any person not being kindred of the testator.

The Master of the Rolls held that the income of the one moiety representing the bequest to the poor kindred, and of the South Sea Annuities, and the £60 a-year, were primarily applicable for the relief of those of the testator's poor kindred coming within the definition in his Will, and that subject thereto the whole income was applicable for the benefit of charitable objects other than the testator's kindred.

The POOR KIN, however, though discomfited, carried their case before the Court of Appeal, and their Lordships reversed the decision of the Master of the Rolls.

It may be added that the POOR KIN have increased in a like ratio to the bequest. In 1700 there were only four recipients of the testator's bounty. In 1868 they had increased to 412, and in 1877 they were believed to number about 700; so that, however large the fund available may be, there will be no lack of claimants on it.

ESTATES REVERTING TO THE CROWN.

It would be difficult to adduce better evidence of the value of Next of Kin Advertisements than the following:—

MRS. MANGIN BROWN'S CASE.

In December, 1871, Mrs. Maria Mangin Brown, then of Hertford-street, Mayfair, died intestate, leaving personalty of the value of over £200,000, and with no known Next of Kin. The Solicitor to the Treasury took possession of her estate on behalf of the Crown, and issued advertisements to ascertain who were Mrs. Brown's Next of Kin. Fourteen persons came in thereunder, and four of them (Italians) proved their claim to the satisfaction of the Court, and the matter came on by petition, praying payment to the petitioner, Filippo Tomasso Mattia Freccia, of £192,535, the balance of the above sum of £200,000, after providing for Succession Duty and costs. After some discussion between the Counsel, the Vice-Chancellor Malins, in 1876, made an order in the terms of the prayer of the petition.

The case having apparently been satisfactorily settled, two shares of the funds in Court were paid out, but a stop-order was obtained by new claimants on the remainder, and litigation has been going on ever since.

MRS. HELEN BLAKE'S CASE.

In 1876 Mrs. Helen Blake died at Kensington, intestate, and without any known relatives. She left personal property valued at £140,000, and the Treasury Solicitor, issued the following notice:—

BLAKE.—HEIR-AT-LAW.—NEXT OF KIN.—The Heir-at-Law and Next of Kin of Mrs. Helen Blake, late of 4, Earl's Terrace, Kensington, widow, deceased, are requested to apply to ———

Claimants appeared in reply to the Advertisement, and the case is now (1878) before the High Court of Justice.

If Advertisements issued by the Crown Solicitor in each case stated the amount of the "windfall" awaiting claimants, more people would be likely to be benefited. No one would guess, from the Advertisement given above, that £140,000 awaited the unknown Next of Kin of Mrs. Helen Blake.

NOTE.—The following are Extracts from some of the Advertisements referred to by the Names in this Index:—

2336.—Landed Property in America of very considerable value having been left to the right Heirs of FRANCIS KENDALL, who were unknown to the testator, an Agent has been sent to England to endeavour to discover the same. In order to assist those who may think themselves entitled, and to prevent unnecessary trouble, the advertiser begs to state that the names of THOMAS, RALPH, and PETER KENDALL are known to be among those in the right line of descent from Francis Kendall. Every information respecting the property will be given to such applicants as can show a proper title to the same, on application to the Agent ———

11881.—If THOMAS NICHOLSON, formerly of Chapel End, Walthamstow, in the County of Essex, shoemaker, who about the year 1830 left England for Upper Canada, and who returned thence to England about ten years ago, and shortly afterwards sailed for Upper Canada a second time, will apply to ———, Solicitors, ———, he may receive a considerable sum of money. . . . The said Thomas Nicholson, if living, is now about 62 years of age.

UNCLAIMED MONEY:

A HANDY BOOK FOR HEIRS AT LAW, NEXT OF KIN, AND PERSONS ADVERTISED FOR.

By EDWARD PRESTON,

(COMPILER OF CHAMBERS'S INDEX TO NEXT OF KIN.)

OFFICE: 1, GREAT COLLEGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

EXTRACTS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

A very useful Handy Book. Most persons will agree with the author's opinion, that greater publicity ought to be given, than is now the case, to the fact that there are large sums of Army and Navy Prize Money in hand.—Broad Arrow.

This is indeed "a Handy Book," especially recommending itself to Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and persons in search of a clue to Unclaimed Money. It gives the most valuable hints . . . The stories told in illustration of many points are uncommonly good.—Weekly Times.

All who harbour any suspicions that some one or other of their Missing Relatives may have died and left them a mint of money should procure a copy of this book . . . .—People's Journal.

Mr. Preston deserves the thanks of the community for the publication of his little work . . . it is both amusing and interesting in the highest degree . . —Freemason.

The book is, apart from the special information it contains, really interesting to the general reader . . . .—South London Press.

"Unclaimed Money" is the attractive title of some notes on Heirs at Law and Next of Kin who have been advertised for or otherwise sought without avail. Mr. Preston has brought together a considerable amount of curious information.—Rock.

The chapter on "Curiosities of Next of Kin" is remarkable and attractive . . Its perusal will furnish a large amount of both instruction and amusement . . . . —Colliery Guardian.

A neatly got-up Handy Book for Heirs at Law and Next of Kin, carefully compiled. . . a cheap shilling's-worth. . . —Hereford Journal.

So attractively compiled that we have little fear it will attain a wide circulation. It is certain to prove of immense utility.—Londonderry Herald.

This book may be classed among the light literature of legal writings. It is useful as well as interesting.—Aberdeen Journal.

Contains a variety of information interesting and instructive to the general public.—Northampton Herald.

The information it contains and the reliable statistics it gives are sufficient to enable it to assert and to occupy a place in every household. . . Works regarding money are generally popular, and we have no doubt Mr. Preston's able work will be very widely read.—Kelso Chronicle.

Replete with interesting and curious matter.—Foreign Times.

Mr. Preston has made a specialty of the subject treated in this book, and any one interested in searches of the kind should by all means obtain a copy of this work, as it gives them exactly what they want.—Peterborough Advertiser.

Contains a large amount of curious information.—Exeter Times.

Affords a good deal of useful information for those seeking official notifications to Next of Kin.—Jersey Times.

Those who devote a few spare minutes to its pages will find the work really interesting and valuable. We cannot see how a work of this description could be made more entertaining and pleasant to read.—Oldham Chronicle.

INSTRUCTIONS

FOR OBTAINING COPIES OF THE ADVERTISEMENTS OR INFORMATION REFERRED TO IN THIS INDEX.

The NAME and INDEX NUMBER should be distinctly written.

The fee for a FULL COPY varies according to the value of the Information. Lowest fee 10*s.* 6*d.*

Before paying the full fee, some persons may desire to ascertain with certainty if the Advertisement relates to the person about whom they are seeking intelligence, and for this purpose an extract thereof will be supplied for a fee of Seven shillings. If a full copy is afterwards required, this amount will be deducted from the fee for full copy.

The following is a specimen of the kind of Extract above referred to:—

James Irving, master mariner, formerly of Leith, captain of the barque ——, who died 1877, on a voyage from Hong Kong to London. Deceased has left property. Wanted, his Heir at Law. Apply to ——, Solicitor, ——.

All letters should be addressed—

Edward Preston,

1, Great College Street, Westminster, S.W.

NOTICE TO INQUIRERS.

NUMBERS of Advertisements appear daily in the Newspapers calling on Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, Legatees, Missing Friends and others to come forward and claim property of all kinds and amounts in value. These notifications are often unseen at the time of publication by the parties really interested, who perhaps only hear that they have been advertised for on their return from abroad many years afterwards. They are then naturally anxious to obtain a copy of the Advertisement, and ascertain if there is any Unclaimed Money or Property to which they are entitled. Hence the value of this Index. It enables the public to obtain this desirable information for a small fee.

In addition to the names contained in this Index, the compiler has Lists of persons who have died intestate in India, the Colonies, and elsewhere, and is constantly adding thereto. If therefore the name wanted is not found in this Index, the compiler suggests that particulars be sent to him of the circumstances under which information is sought (together with a fee of 2*s.* 6*d.*), and careful search will then be made. If the name wanted is not found, suggestions will be made as to the best mode of procedure.

SEARCHES and INQUIRIES made at the CHANCERY OFFICES, SOMERSET HOUSE, INDIA OFFICE, ADMIRALTY, and elsewhere.

Information can be supplied respecting Unclaimed Dividends of the Bank of England, South Sea Stock, and in Bankruptcy. Also as to Soldiers' Balances Unclaimed, Army and Navy Prize Money, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS ON THIRD EDITION.

UNITED KINGDOM.

To all who have any hopes of succeeding to fortunes of which they at present know nothing, this book will prove of great and abiding interest.....Morning Post.

Ought to prove valuable to all interested in Unclaimed Money.....—Standard.

A very happy idea.....—Echo.

In its compilation a great amount of time must have been expended.....—News of the World.

There are thousands to whom this book would be an absolute fortune.....—Weekly Times.

How many thousands are there at home, on the continent, and in the colonies, who fancy that they will one day come into something handsome! To all who have any legitimate expectations this work will afford all the information desired.....—European Mail.

A week never passes without one or more applications being made to us respecting missing Advertisements. If our correspondents will turn to this handy volume they will find the names of Next of Kin, Missing Friends, and others alphabetically arranged.—Lloyd's.

It is certainly useful to know the address of a person who has kept copies of all such Advertisements.....—Solicitors' Journal.

A most painstaking and laborious publication.....—Commercial Gazette.

Of this pile of inert and unproductive money, no less than £1,500,000 in Army and Navy Prize Money is due to the representatives of deceased Soldiers and Sailors, while very large sums are also due to the representatives of persons who have died abroad intestate.....—Naval and Military Gazette.

The compiler has favoured us with a copy, feeling, no doubt, that it is a part of the province of education to enlighten the community upon their neglected rights of property. It must be to a great extent owing to the ignorance of the great mass of the community—to the habit of knowing little beyond what passes within the range of their five senses—that money amounting apparently to millions sterling is lying dormant in this country, waiting for rightful claimants who never appear.....—School Board Chronicle.

Should the legacy have already been claimed, anxiety is set at rest, and money saved that would otherwise be spent in useless searches.....—Leeds Mercury.

This is a wonderful book for "claimants."—Manchester Examiner and Times.

A ready, reliable source of information for Next of Kin.....—Leeds Weekly Times.

Invaluable to fortune hunters or expectant legatees.....—Bradford Daily Telegraph.

In novels people are often made to pick up fortunes out of a chance newspaper, and the incident is disclaimed by the reader as growing out of the author's imagination; what ought to surprise it, not that fortunes are sometimes thus obtained, but that millions of pounds sterling should be going about begging for an owner, fortunes advertising themselves to an incredulous and indifferent public.....—Anglo-American Times.

To which any person to obtain a correct clue to very large sums of money.....—Brighton Daily News.

Also useful to parties returning from abroad after long years of absence.....—North British Advertiser.

Cannot but prove extensively useful.....—Western Daily News.

A copy of a Next of Kin Advertisement is often sufficient to give a direct clue to Unclaimed Money.....—Sunderland Herald.

One of those old books, which by force or custom promise in their very colour a guide somebody to somewhere or something pleasant.....—Newcastle Daily Chronicle.

Its value to solicitors and others cannot be over-estimated.....—Birmingham Daily Gazette.

"Great Expectations" may here find some prop wherewith to have its glowing hopes of future wealth.....—Northampton Herald.

It is a wonderful attempt at classifying Advertisements for Missing Relatives.....—Sheffield Times.

A work which an solicitor's office should be without.....—Reading Mercury.

Any expectant legatee would do well to obtain a copy.....—Oxford Times.

In India and the Colonies this work must be continually in request.....—Overland Mail.

A marvellous book.....No one should miss the chance of obtaining a fortune for a trifle.....—Middlesbrough Gazette.

AMERICAN AND OTHER NOTICES.

Were we to quote the numerous notices given this valuable work by the English Press, they would alone fill the entire magazine.....—Illustrated Household Magazine.

A very valuable and suggestive book.....—Lippincott's Magazine.

Many persons in the United States are heirs to fortunes left them by deceased relatives.....—Insurance Journal.

There is unquestionably a vast amount of property lying unclaimed in England. Heirs are less difficult to find now that communication with the colonies is rapid and constant; but even now the number of Advertisements for Next of Kin proves that the difficulty often arises.....There is no saying what fortune now lying perdu may not be recovered through this Index.....—North China Herald.
